Lighthouse on the Prairies Dec 21 2021 There is very little information about the Jesus Elevator on the internet. Somehow, even Wikipedia missed it. In this book, you are going to learn about Hartley Somerville, a prairie born-again farmer who purchased a 75 foot tall grain elevator in Ellerslie, Alberta, moved it onto his farmstead and, in 1965, repurposed it into the biggest scripture sign Canada has ever seen. Fourteen years later, with the help of a few volunteers, Henry Vanderpyl undertook the task of renovating the elevator with a new verse. For twenty-four years, its endless message steered travelers—far and wide—alongside the Queen Elizabeth II highway at the south entrance to Edmonton: the Gateway to the North. Sometimes, God calls people to do big things. For Henry, big things done with calligraphy became his calling unto God.

Living With The New York City Lighthouse Keeper Oct 19 2021 ""Hey, how ya doin'? What a surprise. I mean, nobody but nobody comes to see me these days. Did ya take the elevator? Ya didn't walk up all those stairs, did ya? Damn, take a seat and I'll get ya a drink. Coffee, tea ... maybe a beer? What's that? A bit too early for ya. I s'pose you're right. Coffee then, eh? Anyway, ya must have a million questions. I mean, ya ain't gonna walk all them stairs just to make small talk, now are ya. My name? Good question but kinda predictable if ya don't mind me sayin'. I been called everything ya can think of and then some. It don't really matter to me though, ya see. I mean, names as such ain't that important."" ...

So begins this book of stories as shared by The New York City Lighthouse Keeper. Call them parables, allegories, fables or even editorial; these are tales that speak of humankind with all of our joys, passions, triumphs and tragedies.
