Herland and The Yellow WallpaperFeb 13 2021 What would happen if society was run by women? Charlotte Perkins Gilman imagined the result... When three American men discover a community of women, living in perfect isolation in the Amazon, they decide simply must be men somewhere. How could these women survive without man's knowledge, experience and strength, not to mention reproductive power? In fact, what they have found is a civilisation free from disease, poverty and the weight of tradition. All women have created a society of calm and prosperity, a feminist utopia that dares to threaten the very concept of male supremacy. WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY LINDY WEST

WallpaperNov 05 2022 We agonise and argue when choosing it; we admire, compliment and criticise it (or keep politely quiet about it); and the rest of the time we don't even notice it. Wallpaper has been the backdrop to our homes for hundreds of years. It makes our house feel cosy or trendy, modern or traditional, and it is one of the key elements of home décor through which to express our taste. The Design, Production and Reception of Eighteenth-Century Wallpaper in Britain Aug 30 2022 Wallpaper's spread across trades, classes and gender is charted in this first full-length study of the material's use in Britain during the long eighteenth century. The types of wallpaper that were designed and produced and the interior spaces it occupied, from the country house to the prosperous townfolk and gentry, showing that wallpaper was hung by Earls and merchants as well as by aristocratic women on a wide range of little-known examples of interior schemes and surviving wallpapers, together with unpublished evidence from archives including letters and bills, it charts wallpaper's evolution across the century from cheap textile imitation to innovative decorative material. Wallpaper's growth is considered not in terms of chronology, but rather alongside the categories used by eighteenth-century tradesmen and consumers, from plains to flocks, from China papers to papier mâché and from stucco papers to various materials for creating print rooms. It ends by assessing the ways in which eighteenth-century wallpaper was used to create interiors in the twentieth century. Including a wide range of illustrations, many in colour, the book will be of interest to historians of material culture and design, scholars of art and architectural history as well as practicing designers and those interested in the interior.

Creating Symmetry Mar 29 2022 A step-by-step illustrated introduction to the astounding mathematics of symmetry This lavishly illustrated book provides a hands-on, step-by-step introduction to the intriguing mathematics of symmetry. Instead of breaking patterns into blocks—a sort of potato-stamp method—Frank Farris offers a completely new waveform approach that enables you to create an endless variety of rosettes, friezes, and wallpaper patterns: dazzling art images where the beauty of nature meets the precision of mathematics. Featuring more than 100 stunning color illustrations and requiring only a modest background in math, Creating Symmetry begins by addressing the enigma of a simple curve, whose curious symmetry seems unexplained by its formula. Farris describes how complex numbers unlock the mystery, and how they lead to the next steps on an engaging path to constructing waveforms. He explains how to devise waveforms for each of the 17 possible wallpaper types, and then guides you through other fascinating topics in symmetry, such as color-reversing patterns, three-color patterns, polyhedral symmetry, and hyperbolic symmetry. Along the way, Farris demonstrates how to marry waveforms with photographic images to construct beautiful symmetrical patterns as he gradually familiarizes you with more advanced mathematics, including group theory, functional analysis, and partial differential equations. As you progress through the book, you'll learn how to create breathtaking art images of your own. Fun, accessible, and challenging, Creating Symmetry features numerous examples and exercises throughout, as well as engaging details of the history behind the mathematics presented in the book.

The Yellow Wallpaper Feb 25 2022 'The Yellow Wallpaper', by Charlotte Perkins Gilman, is a short story first published in January 1892. The psychological thriller by the renowned US women's rights writer and campaigner is an autobiographical-inspired novel based upon her own experience of severe postnatal depression, leading to post-natal psychosis. At the time, women with PM

America as postpartum depression) were seen as hysterical and were often dismissed by doctors who overlooked treatment through lack of understanding of the condition. In Perkins' short story, written tellingly from the first-person perspective, the female protagonist is forced to sleep in an attic with yellow wallpaper and is driven mad by her enforced imprisonment following the birth of her first child. The book describes in detail how she sees imagined beings and ghostly sightings in the house. Disturbed in nature yet utterly realistic to the heroine, the protagonist offers a diary-style narrative detailing her experience as a new mother suffering with severe mental illness: "I don't know why I should write this. I don't want to. I don't feel able. And I know John will think it absurd. But I must say what I feel and think in some way—it is such a relief! But the effort is getting to be greater than the relief." Evoking gothic themes of Charlotte Brontë's 'Jane Eyre', in both Jane Eyre's own tortuous and notorious Red Room and Bertha Mason's confinement in her loft prison, the book was made into a film in 2011 – directed by Logan Thomas and starring Saoirse Ronan, Jesse Williams, Cushing and Juliet Landau. Charlotte Perkins Gilman, also known as Charlotte Perkins Stetson, was born on 3rd July 1860 in Hallowell, Connecticut, USA. Her early family life was troubled, with her father abandoning his wife and family; a move which strongly influenced her feminist political leanings and advocacy of women's rights. After jobs as a tutor and painter, Perkins – a self-proclaimed humanist and 'tom boy' – began to work as a writer of short stories, novels, non-fiction pieces and poetry. Her best known work is a semi-autobiographical short story, inspired by her post-natal depression, entitled 'The Yellow Wallpaper' which was published in 1892 and made into a film in 2011. A member of the American National Women's Hall of Fame, Charlotte Perkins Gilman was a strong believer that "the domestic environment oppressed women through the patriarchal beliefs upheld by society". A believer in eugenics, she was diagnosed with incurable breast cancer in January 1932 and chose to take her own life in August 1935, writing in her diary to note that she "chose chloroform over cancer".

Selbstdarstellung in "The Yellow Wallpaper" von Charlotte Perkins Gilman Apr 29 2022 Studienarbeit aus dem Fachbereich Anglistik - Literatur, , Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: Im Rahmen dieser Arbeit wird der Frage nachgegangen, welche Unstimmigkeiten sich zwischen dem erweckten Anschein und der Wirklichkeit der präsentierten Fassade der Ich-Erzählerin in „The Yellow Wallpaper“ zeigen. Das Ziel dieser Arbeit ist es herauszufinden, inwiefern die Ich-Erzählerin eine falsche Fassade präsentiert. Jedoch kann davon ausgegangen werden, dass nicht nur ausschließlich auf der Bühne Dinge vorgetäuscht werden. Bereits der Titel von Erving Goffmans Veröffentlichung „Wir alle spielen Theater: Die Selbstdarstellung im Alltag“ (Original: „The Presentation of Self in Everyday Life, 1969) lässt Rückschlüsse auf das Verhalten des Einzelnen in Anbetracht von Selbstdarstellung festmachen. Im Rahmen dieser Arbeit wird die Fassade der Ich-Erzählerin aufgedeckt. Eine Begriffsdefinition nach Erving Goffman soll hier zunächst Aufschluss geben. Zentrale Thesen werden als Grundlage für die vorliegende Arbeit herangezogen. Goffmans Theorie wird auf die Fassade der Ich-Erzählerin projiziert und anschließend diskutiert. Die Fassade ist von ihm in folgende festgelegte Komponente unterteilt: „Raumgestaltung“ „Erscheinung“ und „Verhalten“. Die Raumgestaltung, welche von Goffman als „Bühnenbild“ bezeichnet wird, soll hauptsächlich mit dem Ansatz von Natascha Würzbach: „Erzählter Raum. Fiktionaler Baustein, kultureller Sinnträger, Ausdruck der Geschlechterordnung“ entwickelt werden. Weitere Ansatzpunkte für die Analyse der Fassade sollen in anderem Charlotte Perkins Gilmans Essays „The Man-Made World“ (2018), „Die Kultur der Männer“ (2018) und „Why I wrote The Yellow Wallpaper“ (2011) bilden. Im Anschluss wird untersucht, inwiefern die Ich-Erzählerin selbst an den Anschein der Wirklichkeit glaubt. Es wird aufgezeigt, ob der Ich-Erzählerin Glaubwürdigkeit geschenkt werden kann. Die Ergebnisse der Untersuchung werden daraufhin zusammengefasst, um die Frage zu beantworten, ob die Ich-Erzählerin eine Fassade präsentiert, die uns täuscht und

Papered Wall May 31 2022 The definitive international history of wallpaper from its origins to today's digital and laser printed wallpaper is now brought completely up to date. Wallpaper is high fashion, and literally so in the wallcovering lines launched by Gucci in 2000 and Benetton in 2004. Innovation has been fueled by technology (with developments such as multicolored dry rub-off transfers) environmental concerns (with nonwovens, or vlies, that breathe and create no harmful residues); and by a profusion of retro naturalistic, humorous, and artistic ideas. First published in 1994, The Papered Wall has been revised to include a new and fully illustrated chapter on recent trends and a thorough reworking of its invaluable reference section, including suppliers of historic patterns and collections open to the public. Written by experts from Belgium, Britain, France, Germany, and the United States, this authoritative volume begins with the individually printed sheets that formed the first wallpapers in the fifteenth century. It covers English flocked papers with repeats as large as seven feet, spectacular French panoramas encircling an entire room, and exquisite printed bowers of roses. By 1900 technical inventiveness and designers like William Morris had put new kinds of wall covering on a vast choice of patterns before a worldwide market. The twentieth century saw a struggle between traditional ideas and radical "modern" styles—Jugendstil, Art Deco, Bauhaus, and postwar contemporary designs. Complete with a guide to care and conservation, this is a timely, informative, and stimulating record of wallpapers for every use and taste.

Oct 24 2021 The Yellow Wallpaper is considered a groundbreaking feminist masterpiece and one of the most exquisite horror stories in American literature. Charlotte Perkins Gilman was America's leading feminist intellectual of the early twentieth century. In addition to her masterpiece 'The Yellow Wallpaper', this new edition also includes a selection of her short stories. This work is considered an important early work in feminist literature and one which explored issues about women's health, both physical and mental.

The Yellow Wallpaper & Herland Dec 14 2020 Charlotte Perkins Gilman's progressive views on feminism and mental health are powerfully showcased in her two most famous stories. The Yellow Wallpaper skillfully charts one woman's struggle with depression whilst Herland is an entertaining imagining of an all-female utopia. Part of the Macmillan Collector's Library; a series of stunning clothbound, pocket-sized classics with gold foiled edges and ribbon markers. These beautiful books make perfect gifts or a treat for any book lover. This edition is introduced by journalist and author Lucy Mangan. Confined to her attic bedroom and isolated from the world by a newborn baby, the nameless narrator of The Yellow Wallpaper keeps a secret diary in which she records the sprawling and sinister patterns of the room's lurid yellow wallpaper as she slowly sinks into madness. This chilling story is based on the author's own experience of depression. In Herland, a trio of men set out to discover an all-female community rumoured to be hidden deep in a remote jungle. What they find surprises them all; they're captured by women who, for two thousand years, have lived in a peaceful and prosperous utopia without men.

Turning to Wallpaper Mar 05 2020 "Wear poetry as both perfume and armor." Wong's words and artistry are both vibrant with richly textured, defiant, and unapologetic in their boldness. Her speaker begins her spiritual journey of remembrance that transcends body, tradition, or even nation in the pursuit of authentic art that is constructed through the radical acceptance of the past and leaves it all behind. Turning to Wallpaper is a story where no wounds are left unconflicted or softened. It is beautiful, without pity. There is "pain, but no victimhood."
