Life Is Too Short Sep 22 2021 We were all affected by 9/11. That's not news, nor is it news that everyone grieves in different ways. How some people heard the call to service, how they heeded the voice calling them through the aftermath toward a new life, however, is striking and inspiring. As these people look back on how their worlds have changed, they can help us answer the heartrending question, "Where was God?" In Life Is Too Short: Stories of Transformation and Renewal after 9/11, author and journalist Wendy Stark Healy brings us the personal narratives of disaster responders, case managers, pastors, and those who worked in or near the World Trade Center, revealing how their experiences after 9/11/01 changed their lives for the better—forever. Healy shares the story of the pastor who blessed body parts at Ground Zero and, after healing his own emotional wounds, became a mental health counselor. There's the aspiring actress and temp worker who became a spiritual healer after realizing healing is always possible, even amid unfathomable horror and despair. A Wall Street banker volunteered in an FDNY food tent before going on to run the September 11 Families' Association. Healy's stories of renewal and faith, of the normal people who used the gifts they were given to make the world a better place, show us the strength and power in helping one another and give us a roadmap for building a future of tolerance and peace.

Life's Too Short to Pretend You're Not Religious Feb 25 2022 We can't just be done with religion, argues David Dark. The fact of religion is the fact of us. Religion is the witness of everything we're up to--for better or worse. David Dark is one of today's most respected thinkers, public intellectuals, and cultural critics at the intersection of faith and culture. Since its original release, Dark's Life's Too Short to Pretend You're Not Religious has become essential reading for those engaged in the conversation on religion in contemporary American society. Now, Dark returns to his classic text and offers us a revised, expanded, and reframed edition that reflects a more expansive understanding, employs inclusive language, and tackles the most pressing issues of the day. With the same keen powers of cultural observation, candor, and wit his readers have come to know and love, Dark weaves in current themes around the pandemic and vaccine responses, Black Lives Matter, the #MeToo and #ChurchToo movements, Critical Race Theory, and more. By looking intentionally at our weird religious background (we all have one), he helps us acknowledge the content of our everyday existence--the good, the bad, and the glaringly inconsistent. When we make peace with the idea of being religious, we can more practically envision an undivided life.

Life's Too Short to Cry Aug 02 2022 A newly discovered "exhilarating and moving memoir" of an RAF fighter pilot in World War II (Daily Mail). It is not often that a long-hidden gem of a manuscript is published, bringing a moment in WWII history to vivid life for today's readers. Geoffrey Wellum's First Light was one example. The memoir of Timothy Vigors is another. Born in Hatfield but raised in Ireland and educated at Eton and Cranwell, Vigors found himself in France in 1940 flying Fairey Battle bombers. After the Fall he joined the fighters of 222 Squadron, with whom he saw frantic and distinguished service over Dunkirk and persevered through the dangerous days of the Battle of Britain, when he became an ace. Vigors transferred to the Far East in January 1941 as a flight commander with 243, then to 453 Squadron RAAF, and on December 10 of that year he led a flight of Buffaloes to cover the sinking Prince of Wales and Repulse. Dramatically shot down, burnt and attacked on his parachute, he was evacuated to Java, and from there, to India. As he describes these experiences in his handwritten account, the author provides a fascinating and valuable record, a newly discovered personal narrative of air combat destined to be seen as a classic.

You - Ich darf dich nicht begehren Aug 10 2020 Mein Name ist Chase. Ich habe eine ganz besondere Gabe. Und damit meine ich nicht, dass ich jede Frau ins Bett kriegen kann. Das ist natürlich so, aber ich bin auch erfolgreicher Arzt und habe ein Herz aus Gold. Nur eins fehlt mir zu meinem Glück: Ein Appartement. Und das ist in New York in etwa so schwer zu finden wie die Frau fürs Leben. Apropos Frau fürs Leben: Josie, meine bezaubernde und brillante beste Freundin, hat gerade ein Zimmer frei. Problem gelöst! Und da ich aus bitterer Erfahrung genau weiß, wie fatal es ist, sich auf seine beste Freundin einzulassen, bestehe auch keine Gefahr, dass wir uns zu nahe kommen. Life's Too Short to Drink Bad Wine Nov 24 2021 'Wine is a good, familiar creature and once bitten, that's it.' Len Evans Len Evans was bitten early and that was it. He remained an enthusiastically successful promoter of the 'good, familiar creature' until his untimely death in 2006. But after almost half a century of a life in wine, he wasn't keen on getting into the autobiography business. 'I was asked to write my memoirs,' he said in 1985, 'but I didn't like the idea - for one reason I'm still living them, and for another, my many conceits do not include a belief that my life has been particularly fascinating.' Well, he didn't write his memoirs but he left us something else that is uniquely Evans - an anecdotal ramble through a life devoted to the production, promotion - and drinking! - of wine. There are occasional detours to paint a picture of an old mate, tell a wise or hilarious wine tale, or just spin a good yarn. And there was many a yarn garnered in the new Welsh migrant's progress from ring-barking trees in the bush to washing glasses in a pub, writing comedy sketches and embarking on a career-changing role in a major hotel before becoming established as a restaurateur, vigneron and ultimately - almost inevitably - as Australia's most influential wine personality. In 1979, Len wrote of a friend's book, 'It's a funny book, it's a serious book. It contains something for every wine lover.' Few words could better describe what he has left us in Life's Too Short to Drink Bad Wine. Praise for Len Evans 'There was, and will only ever be, one Don Bradman - and only one Len Evans AO, OBE.' - James Halliday '[Len Evans is] the finest judge of wine I know.' - Hugh Johnson 'Len Evans has done more to advance the cause of Australian wine than any other individual.' - The Oxford Companion to Wine

Life Is Short, Wear Your Party Pants Jul 29 2019 Loretta La Roche has helped millions of people find ways to lighten up and overcome stress. Now, in Life Is Short-Wear Your Party Pants, she gives you the tools you need to not only reduce feelings of tension, but also to bring joy, passion, and gusto into your life. Her techniques are a brilliant blend of old-world common sense and the most contemporary research in brain chemistry, psychology, and mind-body studies. Loretta gives you dozens of proven techniques for recognizing the ten simple truths that will lead you to an intense, happy, successful life: resilience, living in the moment, optimism, acceptance, humor, creativity, moderation, responsibility, meaning, and connection. Loretta's wisdom evolved from her own life-one filled with the demands of being a single mother of three; of starting her own business when she was broke; and of the wacky invasiveness of her Italian family. She's like all of us: real, flawed, stressed out, and on edge. Her magic comes from an ability to not take herself too seriously, and to always shift her focus away from the self-destructive and toward the truly important things in life. In her work, Loretta has seen tens of thousands of people who live their lives as if they're sitting in a waiting room, hoping that their turn comes up next. This book will show you that life is not something to be endured, but is something to be truly appreciated. We need to remember how to access our inner abundance, which allows us to be heart-centered, joy-filled human beings. As Loretta says: "Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, and today is a gift—that's why they call it the present."
